Marshal Cites Danger of Fire at Christmas

Pointers on how to avoid tragedy over the holiday season, were given today by Fire Marshal Robert Lucas.

He advised residents not to keep Christmas trees after the foliage dries out and they become an extreme fire hazard. When they are disposed, he cautioned, the trees should not be burned in fireplaces, because they burn extremely hot, and constitute a danger.

Christmas wrapping should be disposed of after the presents are opened and should be placed outside in a covered metal container if possible.

Caution should also be used in using flame-retardant cotton, if used around the base of the Christmas tree and under no circumstances should cheap imported lights which are wired directly to the base be used. Circuits should also not be overloaded, and electric trains and other electric toys should not be set up under the tree.

Gas Company

Appointment of H. M. O'Haver of Hermosa Beach, as Central Division Sales Manager for the Southern California Gas Co. has been announced by the utility's General Sales Manager P. R. Shea. O'Haver succeeds C. R. Rikel who was recently appointed executive assistant reporting to the firm's senior vice president R. R. Blackburn. Formerly Industrial Sales Supervisor, O'Haver will direct all sales efforts in the company's Central Division in his new post.

Yukon Traffic Hazard Cited

A parking ban on Yukon Ave., between Redondo Beach Blvd. and 182nd St., and improvement of Crenshaw Blvd. between 176th and 177th Sts., was requested Tuesday by the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association.

Mrs. Margaret Clark, president of the organization, charged that Yukon Ave. has become a traffic hazard to school children because many spots are unimproved. She urged that no parking be permitted except for deliveries.

The other request calls on the city to install curbs and gutters on Crenshaw Blvd., on property over which the Edison power lines are installed.

Santa to Visit Southwest Park

Santa Claus will visit the Southwest Park area on Dec. 20, under sponsorship of the Southwest Park Improvement Association.

The group announced that additional help is needed with circulating street lighting petitions on Tallman, Anza Arvada, Darien and Bulova Aves., according to Mrs. Jane Hogue, who may be contacted at FR 9-4390.

A teenage dance will be held at the Flavian School tomorrow and a pre-teen dance will be sponsored at the Carl Steele School Dec. 19.

The last meeting of the association was addressed by Officer A. L. Jackson, who talked about police sponsored car clubs.

SEEK TRAFFIC SIGNAL

Installation of a signal at Arlington Ave. and Sepulveda Blvd. was urged as a priority measure by City Manager George Stevens Tuesday.

WIN RUG POSTS

Jack Spencer and Tom Burchfield of Torrance will be installed as directors of the Rug Cleaners Institute of California Dec. 6 in the Switzerland Restaurant, Los Angeles.

Pedestrians can see headlights long before a driver can see pedestrians the Allstate Safety Crusade states.

New Variance Law

The City Council will have the last word on future zone variances, if an ordinance amendment submitted Tuesday, is approved.

The change would require the

City Council to hold a hearing after two hearings before the Planning Commission. Also the 20-year limitation on variances will be removed and the time period will be set by the council.

Just in Time!
